Information About Our Use Of Cookies

Cookie Policy, our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site. A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

We use the following cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies.

These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website, use a shopping cart or make use of e-billing services.

- Analytical/performance cookies.

They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

- Functionality cookies.

These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).

- Targeting cookies.

These cookies record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

The table below explains the cookies we use and why.

Cookie Title/Name	Purpose
XSRF-TOKEN	This cookie is essential (strictly necessary) for our site as it stores a token that prevents malicious attacks on the website or those that seek to exploit an authentic user's access for their own gain. Duration – session
bSession	This cookie allows you use our site in a way that makes your browsing experience more convenient, for example, by allowing you to store items in an electronic shopping basket between visits. If you register with us or complete our online forms, we will use cookies to remember your details during your current visit, and any future visits provided the cookie was not deleted in the interim. Duration – session
hs	This cookie is essential (strictly necessary) and is used for security reasons. Duration – session
Ssr-caching	Used to indicate the system from which the site was rendered. Duration – one minute svSession	Identifies unique visitors and tracks a visitor's sessions on a site. Duration – 2 year

Please note that third parties (including, for example, advertising networks and providers of external services like web traffic analysis services) may also use cookies, inspect your web request, browser, or computer, to record, process, analyse, or sell your personal data with potentially no restriction, over which we have no control, and we cannot accept any liability for the third party's compliance with its legal obligations. These cookies are likely to be analytical/performance cookies or targeting cookies:

- Google analytics
- Google tag manager
- Instagram
- Youtube
- Facebook
- LinkedIn

These services may hold your personal information and may be able so associate your activity on these websites with your activity on www.gyru-star.com for purposes commercial, legal, or otherwise. Our intent is to share information with these third parties to be able to better target specific customer profiles with advertisements.

Disabling cookies

Wheatway websites are designed to function optimally with cookies enabled. You can, however, disable cookies via your website browser settings. This may mean, however, that you may no longer have access to some of our website features. Please note that even with all cookies disabled, a tiny amount of information will continue to be retrieved from your web browser. This information is necessary for the basic functioning of our website.

Except for essential cookies, all cookies will expire after a two year period
